

FOR CURRENT STUDENTS

THE KARIN KRENEK MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

“You are valued, cherished, loved, always loved”

$2,000 Scholarship – two awarded. Deadline January 15, 2022

Mrs. Karin Krenek, Director of Performing Arts touched the hearts of those who were blessed to have known her. The students called her “Mama K” and she gave the gift of love to everyone she met. Karin put the student’s needs before her own on a daily basis. The Krenek family would like to honor their mother, Karin and continue her love and support of the Donovan Catholic students.

CRITERIA FOR CONSIDERATION

- Applicants must be a current student at Donovan Catholic.

- Applicants must submit the following in a manila envelope with his/her name on the front:
 - A 250-500 word essay on TWO of the following prompts:
 - Prompt One: Donovan Catholic was a home away from home for our beloved and cherished Karin Krenek. Karin gave her message daily... “You are valued, you are cherished and you are loved, always loved” to the school and the students. What does Donovan mean to you? How do you communicate this message outside of Donovan?
 - Prompt Two: Karin Krenek always appreciated the persons and students in her life who were willing to do work without any promise of praise and acknowledgement. Describe a time you WEREN’T in the spotlight, how did that situation make you feel and how did you handle it?
 - Prompt Three: What would you do if you knew no one would judge you for it? Karin Krenek appreciated students who would be the “unexpected” ones, the athletes, the kids who were never involved in theater but worked up the courage to audition, the ones who may not have been the best singers, but still wanted to be up on stage, the student who never played a sport but had the courage to try out. Karin never rejected a single soul and there was always a home for everyone at Donovan Catholic.
 - Prompt Four: My favorite thing about last Tuesday was? How did you find the joy in that day? Karin Krenek found joy in every day, which was the heart of her personality. Demonstrate how to find happiness in the trivial details of your day.
