The G.O.E.S Mission organization was formed by three of Donovan's teachers. Since 2008 G.O.E.S has been traveling to remote, mountainous villages in the Dominican Republic to build homes for those who so desperately need our help. Our groups build two to four homes each summer, form beautiful friendships, and share their love and their faith. Participants realize that by building our families new, decent homes to live in, they are forever changing their lives. They come to understand that by putting their faith into action, they too are forever changed.
