

FOR A CURRENT RISING SENIOR GIRL
KATIE MCCULLION
MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

$1000 Scholarship
Deadline November 16, 2020

Katie McCullion graduated from Monsignor Donovan High School in 1993 and received a BA from Seton Hall University and an MA from Rider University. Throughout her short life, Katie demonstrated kindness toward others, cheerfulness and enthusiasm for life. She also worked diligently to achieve academic success at all levels of her education. In fact Katie received the “Spirit of Monsignor Donovan Award” at the end of her senior year.

As a young adult, Katie demonstrated her passion for respecting and sustaining the natural environment. She hoped “to make a difference” and became highly involved in the environmental movement when she moved to California following college. Unfortunately, Katie lost her battle with cancer in 2014. Her family has established a scholarship to honor her memory. Because seniors face the added expenses of college applications, the McCullion family has designated the recipient of this scholarship to be a senior girl.
