

Juneteenth

celebrate freedom

On Juneteenth, we bow humbly and pray for the end of racist attitudes among the peoples of our great nation and for an end to all forms of slavery in the world. By following Christ's commandment of love, may we live in God's grace and forgiveness, and so effect the positive changes we long for in our world. Amen

Gal: 5:13-14 You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the flesh; rather, serve one another humbly in love. For the entire law is fulfilled in keeping this one command: "Love your neighbor as yourself."
